Annual Report.

Jan. 11th 1910

During the year 1910 - the Members; Guild membership has consisted of 30 active members.

Fifteen meetings have been held with an average attendance of fifteen. Twenty-two guests have attended meetings during the year. Flowers have been provided for the first lay service in the church and later
distributed to members of the congregation who were "shut-in".

Eggs, range

figs, milk and coal have been sent to needy families as
was found advisable.

Necessary utensils
for the church kitchen to the amount of $3.35 have been supplied also two flower vases and a rock.

Coco matting has been laid in the vestibule of the church at the expense of the Guild.

Letters of sympathy and flower sprigged plants and post card showers have been sent to all our bereaved members.
The altar was decorated to the Cullis home for amputees and then

 place for Thanksgiving
 carpets for needy
 families.

Two sales have been held during the year. The Easter Sale for the benefit of the Playground gave a profit of $50.56. The June Sale for the benefit of the carpet fund gave a profit of $26.77. We now have $76.87 laid aside for a church carpet.

We have now completed six years of successful
 work and have doubled our original membership of fifteen.

We feel that in our efforts to cheer and aid others we, as individuals, have been benefited and hope, as a Guild, to become a greater power for good during the coming year.

Annual Report 1917

During the year 1917 the Friends Guild membership has consisted of 34 active members - Fifteen regular meetings have been held, with an average attendance of 15 - and one special meeting to consider plans for Relief Work for War Victims and also to take action on a contribution toward the Building Fund. Flowers and plants have been provided for the Sunday morning meeting in the church and have distributed to members of the congregation who were not able to attend service.

Mounted post cards, magazines and pictures have been sent to hospitals, sanatoriums &c $33.00 has been applied to relieve a pressing need in the payment of rent - a concert was given which netted the Guild $32.25 - Some minor repairs on parsonage furniture have been made A pledge of $500.00 payable in three years was made toward the Building Fund for the purchase of house corner property - An annual sale held Dec. 5th proved a great success - the proceeds of which were $129.50 - Five dollars were contributed to the 'War Victims' Relief Fund We have ^{purchased} secured a sewing machine which adds to the efficiency of our equipment Altogether we feel that the year 1917 has given us cause for great satisfaction and rejoicing when we consider the handicaps occasioned by the war - the numerous outside interests which demanded our attention and the ever increasing cost of living - Through all the stress of circumstances we have carried on our work with a large measure of success and the hearty co-operation of every member.
